

PONY PARTY DISCLAIMER...

- It is deemed that all children attending an event with Sussex Pony Parties have parental consent.
- Suitable footwear must be worn. Shoes/boots with a hard sole & small heel are fine, as are wellies, but we ask that open toe shoes are avoided for safety reasons. It is the responsibility of the individual, parent/guardian, or event organiser to ensure that anyone attending an event is aware of this requirement.
- Ponies are NOT to be fed during the party/event unless authorised by the handler. Sussex Pony Parties take no responsibility for any injury sustained as a result of safety instructions not being adhered to
- We have riding hats which the children must wear when riding.
- For insurance purposes all children must be led at walk whilst riding.
- For safety reasons no dogs, no ball/throwing games, no running & no smoking allowed on premises.
- Whilst we have tried to make safe all areas we cannot be held responsible for any damage or injury caused whilst on our premises.
- Sussex Pony Parties cannot be held responsible for any allergic reaction, or fear reaction, not directly communicated at the time of booking. It is the responsibility of the individual, parent/guardian, or event organiser to ensure that any such conditions are brought to our attention prior to attending the event.

- We provide hand sanitising gel but we always recommend thorough hand washing with hot water and soap after pony activities.
- We do not provide food or beverages. There is a refrigerator and sink with worktop provided in the Saddle Club Tea Room . However you must provide any food or drinks (other than the water and squash we provide).
- Decorations: If you would like to arrive a half hour early to set up the Hay Barn or decorate. Please just tell our staff that you will be arriving early.
- Please note that photographs of the party will be taken and may be included on our website or literature for publicity and advertising purposes. Please be assured that children will not be named and details are securely protected under the 1998 Data Protection Act. If parents/guardians do not wish for their child’s photo to be used for this purpose we request that they advise us of this on the booking form.
- Pony riding is a HIGH RISK SPORT, and risk of injury, or serious injury, is possible. Similarly, being in close proximity to ponies carries a risk of injury. Although we endeavour to minimise every risk and hazard, animals are unpredictable if scared or hurt, and serious harm can occur. In booking one of our events you accept this risk and agree to abide by all safety instructions.
- Verbal or written abuse of any kind (including threats of abuse or retribution) to any staff member or animal of Sussex Pony Parties will result in the immediate termination of our services.
